WHAT THE GAME IS 32 PICTURES—Each picture represents a book name. Fill the proper book name to each picture. We give you a catalog containing a list of book names. Among this list are the book names for 32 pictures. All you have to do is to find them in this catalog. We give you a reply book in which you can submit your answers to the pictures—and you are allowed three answers to each picture. We give you a pamphlet containing the answers to the 32 pictures for which you study out the 32 book pictures. Send in your Subscription TODAY and get FREE these three books and enter our game. The awarding of the prizes will be under the supervision of men of well known integrity and standing. The answers to the 32 pictures of this Picture Game are now on deposit in the vaults of the Fort Dearborn National Bank, of Chicago. The president of this bank, Mr. Wm. J. Tilden, is one of the judges of this Picture Game. Associated with him is Judge Adelaar J. Pettit of the Superior Court, and Mr. Peter Reinberg, President of the Chicago School Board.

This Piktur-Qwz-Game is strictly on the square. It is not a lottery or game of chance. Has been O. K.'d by the Postoffice Department. The Woman's World is a splendid, clean and inspiring magazine for women. Has a circulation of over 2,000,000 copies each issue. Everybody who sends a Dollar gets full, big value for it—whether they are prize winners or not. What counts isn't what you pay—but what you get for what you pay. The Ford buyer gets the most value for his money. Big production, skilled workmen and best materials make Ford quality high and Ford prices low.

Five hundred and fifty dollars is the price of the Ford runabout; the touring car is six hundred, complete with equipment. Get catalog and particulars from Keeler-Coursey Co., Alliance, Nebraska.

Delightful Surprise Party

A delightful surprise party was enjoyed Wednesday afternoon of last week when Mrs. Chas. Jeffers entertained several friends at her home in honor of her mother, Mrs. T. Miller, it being Mrs. Miller's birthday. A dainty luncheon was served at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Miller received many beautiful and useful presents. Those present were: Mrs. T. Miller, Mrs. J. Wolverton, Mrs. G. Leidy, Mrs. Cal Cox, Mrs. Wm. Townley, Mrs. Chas. Fredrick, Mrs. Safford, Mrs. Rathburn, Mrs. Halstead, Mrs. A. D. Rodgers, Mrs. J. H. Miller, Mrs. Castle, Mrs. E. M. Martin and Miss Lillie Townley.

Celebrates Birthday

Several of Mrs. R. G. Fogle's friends surprised her Thursday evening by going in and helping her to celebrate her forty-third birthday. Light refreshments were served. All enjoyed themselves immensely and wished her many more happy birthdays.

There is nothing that causes so much trouble among neighbors as chickens. Poor chickens! If they are blamed for all the enemies they have made in this world they have scores of black marks against them.

Don't go abroad to buy something when you have a few dollars to spend and then ask your home merchant to sell to you on time when you are broke.

You can't run a live town or anything else, except a cemetery, with dead men. A man is dead when he is destitute of public spirit, opposes improvements, and finds fault with things in general. The only proper way to deal with such men is to take them out and bury them. Dead men to self-respect is the man too lazy to work.

Life, like a bank, gives you bank with interest what you put into it. If you put but little in you get but a small return, and if you put nothing in you get nothing back. It will be noted that most folks who complain that life means nothing to them are of that class. They expect something for nothing and they get disappointed.

The poet has sung about not having a day pass without some good having been done to others. Time is well, and if every citizen of this place will see to it not to let a day pass without saying a good word for this community he will help a whole lot of people.
